Open Call for Voice Instructors

Port Moody Arts Centre is currently seeking Voice Instructors to join our team.

Housed in a heritage Building in the Old Town centre of Port Moody we are the small centre with a big heart! We offer a full range of visual, ceramic and music arts programming for all ages and stages. Small class sizes give the students the opportunity to receive individual instruction from our talented instructors. Visit pomoarts.ca for details.

Applicants must have a Bachelor of Music degree in a chosen field from a recognized university and preferably an A.R.C.T. diploma. They must have a proven ability to design, plan and deliver voice lessons in a private setting to students of all ages and be classically trained; experience in other genres is an asset.

Successful applicants must have a passion for teaching and be able to cater to the individual needs of the student.

Instructors are required to complete a Criminal Records Search, renewable every five years and must provide at least two references if an interview is requested..
